Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Before I was married I suffered a great deal with periodical pains in my side and back and also head-aches, and got so weak I could not do anything. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and soon I felt better. Now I am married and have two little boys. Before the first one came I was weak and nervous, could not eat and was sick. After I took the Vegetable Compound I could work and eat. Now I am strong and recommend your medicine to friends.—Mrs. ANNA SLEVA

BARNET

The remains of Mrs. James Hadley Mullen, Mass., were brought here yesterday Wednesday afternoon, accompanied by her husband, James Hadley and her daughter, Nellie, Mrs. Hadley, before her marriage, and Miss Leontine Somers, daughter of Major Thomas Somers, of East Barnet. Since her marriage her home has been in Lowell, and Mullen has. Mrs. Hadley leaves a family of five daughters and one son besides her husband.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Brock and son, Stanley, from Springfield, Mass., spent Thanksgiving at their brother, W. S. Brock's. Frank French of St. Johnsbury was also there. The young friend of Miss Frank French will regret that she has not been feeling as well for the past week. Miss Lynch of Woodsville, N. H., is coming to pay her a visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Laughlin of Whitefield spent Thanksgiving at Julian P. Laughlin's.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kay and daughter, Della, and son, Andrew, spent Thanksgiving at Fred Quincy's.

Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Brown went to St. Johnsbury Center for Thanksgiving.

Winthrop Audion of Barnet spent Thanksgiving with his father and mother.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Parker and Joe J. Abbe went to St. Johnsbury for Thanksgiving.

Mr. and Mrs. Bertie Goding spent Thanksgiving with Garfield Darling and family at South Peacham.

Harriet Elliott of St. Johnsbury Armory spent the Thanksgiving holiday at her home here.

Miss May Gilman will give a demonstration on home-made candy at Walker's Inn Wednesday afternoon, Dec. 8. All the ladies who are interested are invited to go out.

Mr. and Mrs. Clemon and wife daughter of Concord spent Thanksgiving at Concord.

Mr. and Mrs. James Allen entertained their son and his wife from Oxford, N. H., over Thanksgiving.

The Boy Scouts gave an entertainment at town hall Thanksgiving evening including a short play—"The Man With the Nose," after which there were games and promenades the rest of the evening.

LORAIN

The "LORAIN" Cooks While You Enjoy Yourself

DON'T spend the hours between meals watching your cooking. You don't have to.

Get a CLARK JEWEL Gas Range equipped with the "LORAIN" Oven Heat Regulator. This wonderful device watches your cooking just as carefully as if you were constantly there.

Put your whole meal in the oven at one time. Set the wheel at the proper temperature. Then you have the afternoon off. When you come home your meal will be done. And as delicious as if you were right there all the time.

We want you to see a demonstration. Come in. Then you will not be content to cook a single day longer in the old-time way. Also we want you to have our valuable booklet, "An Easter Day's Work."

Many a near sport would be glad of Hills, Ice, Snow. St. Johnsbury has all these in abundance.

We have the Skates, Ski-Sleds and Accessories in abundance. Look into our window, come inside and see the goods.

Is Your Money Helping This Community?

New Banks and new schemes, paying high rates of interest have lately been shown up in their true character as regards security and the integrity of their officials.

Your home Bank can and does pay you a fair rate of interest and you can call on the principal when you need it.

These funds are passed along to local business men and industries to help development and keep our workers employed.
